

Proud partner of the Green Bay Packers

QUARTER TWO COMMUNITY REPORT

Second Quarter 2025 Highlights

Hometown Advantage Fund
Charitable Contribution

$210,340

26 organizations supported

593

employee
volunteer hours
at 43
organizations

Network Health
hosted and participated in

126

community and wellness events
serving more than 840 members

Jordan Love Charity
Softball Game

Green Bay Blizzard Military
Appreciation Night

Mary Beth Nienhaus
Center Grand Opening

“

I love that this company is rooted in strong values but isn't stuck in the ways things have always been done. I stay engaged by offering up ideas and suggestions on how to continue to grow, as a person, an employee, as part of the sales team, and as a member of the Network Health team!"

- Jackie M.,
Sales Executive,
Network Health

April 2025

Parkinson Symposium

Parkinson Symposium

In April, Network Health sponsored the 2025 Parkinson Association Spring Symposium. Attendees participated in educational sessions, exhibits and hands-on activities focused on improving quality of life for those affected by Parkinson's disease and their caretaker. Coreen Dicus-Johnson, President and CEO of Network Health, shared remarks that underscored Network Health's commitment to supporting community health and neurological wellness.

May 2025

Fox Cities Performing Arts Center

In May, Network Health partnered with the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center to offer members an exclusive discount to the Fox Valley Symphony Orchestra Grand Finale. A total of 69 Medicare members utilized the ticket discount, and 49 attended the meet and greet experience which celebrated membership, community and the arts.

Jordan Love Charity Softball Game

As a featured sponsor of the 2025 Jordan Love Charity Softball Game, Network Health connected with members, agents and employees through educational tables and exclusive experiences. Agents joined us for a clubhouse event featuring Donald Driver, and CFO Brian Ollech took the field to present a donation to the Hands of 10ve Foundation.

June 2025

Capri Communities Enjoy Life Active Aging Symposium

Network Health was the presenting sponsor for this annual event focused on celebrating the positives and possibilities of aging. With 770 attendees, the event featured keynote presentations from Network Health President and CEO, Coreen Dicus-Johnson and John McGivern. Throughout the day, 400 individuals visited our community engagement booth and participated in wellness chair yoga sessions.

Capri Symposium

Revitalize Milwaukee Block Build

Network Health joined the Waukesha Block Build, led by chief actuary and Revitalize Milwaukee board member Kevin Borchert with more than 15 employees, friends and family volunteers. The team completed home upgrades including painting, landscaping and accessibility improvements. Their work is part of Revitalize Milwaukee's efforts to keep low-income seniors, veterans and people living with disabilities in their homes to preserve dignity, independence and a sense of belonging within the community.

Revitalize Milwaukee

Green Bay Blizzard Games

Network Health sponsored four Green Bay Blizzard games, including Diabetes Prevention and Military Appreciation nights. With our $25 discounted ticket package, fans 55+ received game tickets, Network Health gear, food vouchers and a pre-game experience with Blizzard staff. Over 190 people connected with Network Health in our engagement areas during these events.

Gee's 30th Anniversary and Juneteenth Parade

Network Health joined Gee's MKE Wellness Clinic at the Juneteenth Parade in Milwaukee's Bronzeville neighborhood, followed by two days of celebrations to mark the 30th anniversary of Gee's Clippers, a Milwaukee community cornerstone. In partnership with Gee's MKE Wellness Clinic, Network Health offers no-cost services including blood pressure screening, blood glucose monitoring, health coaching and health education.

Mary Beth Nienhaus Community Center Grand Opening

Network Health is the premier sponsor of the Mary Beth Nienhaus Senior Center, which celebrated its grand opening in June. Named after Network Health Medicare member Mary Beth Nienhaus, the new Appleton facility offers more than 200 programs to keep seniors active and connected in their community.

Upcoming Events

Symphony Under the Stars

Enjoy music and fireworks at the Fox Cities Stadium, Neuroscience Group field on July 26. Doors open at 6 p.m. and the concert starts at 7:30 p.m. with fireworks to end the night. This is a free event with no charge for parking or admission to the stadium and special sections available for those who would like to reserve their seats. Learn more here.

Wisconsin State Fair

Cream puffs, corn dogs, August 4 Network Health Day at the Wisconsin State Fair, oh my! Purchase a discounted ticket for $12 (pre-sale only). Offer good for August 4 only. The first 250 people who visit our booth will receive a Network Health branded bucket hat. Get tickets here.

Pulling For Honor

Join Network Health August 16 at Pulling for Honor, a plane pull competition fundraiser for Old Glory Honor Flight. Support our local vets while enjoying family-friendly activities, food trucks and a chance to win an airfare giveaway. Learn more here.

Fondy Farmers Market and Wellness Walks with Dr. Hassan

Stop by to see Network Health at the Fondy Farmers Market in Milwaukee, where you'll find community, connection and plenty of fresh, locally grown produce. Network Health's Chief Medical Officer, Dr. Hassan, will host wellness walks at 11 a.m. on August 23, September 20 and October 4. Learn more about the Fondy Farmers Market here.

Appleton Noon Lions Senior Living Expo®

Celebrate life after 50 with seminars, exhibits and health screenings at the Senior Living Expo® September 17 in Appleton. Sponsored by the Appleton Noon Lions Club Foundation, this annual event offers free admission and free parking. Get more information here.

Fox Cities Marathon

The Fox Cities Marathon brings together thousands of participants, volunteers, spectators, local businesses and community partners September 19-21 for a weekend of eight events including a marathon, half marathon, relay marathon, 10K, 5K, kids events and an expo.

Get the full list of marathon events and register here.

Medicare Member Welcome Events

Network Health continues to offer monthly educational events for new members to learn about the benefits of their Network Health plan for 2025. At these events, members can discuss pharmacy coverage, get answers to their Medicare Advantage plan questions and learn where we will be in the community. Upcoming events will be held on July 22, August 26, 27, 28 and September 24. Medicare members can register by visiting networkhealth.com/medicare/events.

Scan here for more information about
upcoming events.

